Sin, From the tono of your vemarks in the last issue of the Nelo Era, it would seem that you are not satisfied the cause the Board of Trustees have not yet thought best to pursue the course in reference to extending the toom accommodation of the School in the manner you have pointed out for their guidance and as withe parties interested in the Common School may not be aware of the position of mallers in reference to the extension of accomodation. have thought a short statement in connection therewith might be neceptable to your village subscribere. In the first place the Board of Trustees submitted the question of extension to a meeting of the Rate Payers placing the whole question at their disposal. That meeting directed the Board & majure a plan crease the facilities of feachers and pupils in the management of the school and report at . future meeting to be fourened by the Board. The board proceeded to appoint a committee to prepare sail reports which, in due time the inhabitants will have in opportunity of considering in a maeting convened for the purpose. The Board have not contemplated recommending a plan that would haterially increase the bordens of the inhabitants in a peconiary point of view at present, furneasons which and obvious, in the meantime they have adopted a very temporary arrangement which will involve the omlay of a trifling hom, say at a possible loss of Bro dollars in Burte, on the adoption of a more permanent plas by the inhibitants. I would ald that the committee appointed by the school and that the members of the Build have, on ratique occasions, visited the reheal rdoms with the view of determining what steps were bust to take under this direamstances and I believe are unanimpes in the opinion, that the least possible dullay at present, and the temperary arrangement about being carried into effect, will lest confece to the interest of all parties interested. I trust therefore jout will not allow yourself to be seriously alarmed about the matter, believing as I do, that each individual member of the floral feels a lively interest in the question and will enleavor to act in the premises only on matore considera-
